LEADERS FROM TRILLIUM HEALTH PARTNERS RECEIVE PRESTIGIOUS LEADERSHIP AWARDS

(Mississauga, ON) – Trillium Health Partners expressed heartfelt congratulations to Ron Noble, Vice President, Redevelopment and Elena Holt, Director of Cardiac Health, on their recent awards from the Canadian College of Health Leaders (CCHL). Noble was awarded the Mentorship Award, while Holt won a Chapter Award for Distinguished Service.

“We are so proud of Ron and Elena. This is a wonderful achievement for them and a testament to the incredible work they do every day for our hospital and the community we serve,” said Michelle DiEmanuele, President and CEO of Trillium Health Partners.

CCHL is a national, member-driven, not-for-profit association dedicated to fostering and recognizing competent and effective leadership, and has been running its national Leadership Excellence Award Program for the past 20 years. The CCHL award celebrates leaders working in health care across the country for their mentorship, leadership, commitment, integrity and development of leading practices across the health industry. Noble and Holt were among 31 individual award recipients this year.

The Mentorship Award is presented to a leader in the health care system who demonstrates exemplary, sustained commitment to mentoring, and inspiring health care leadership. For over a decade at Trillium Health Partners and one of its legacy hospitals, Ron has been a leader in delivering on many important hospital priorities, and the continued capital redevelopment of the hospital. His passion for health care, dedication to building strong, healthy communities and commitment to developing the leaders of tomorrow has been invaluable to Trillium Health Partners. Ron has been a mentor to hospital staff, CCHL members from across the country, new immigrants, and numerous students from the various graduate programs focusing on healthcare leadership.

The Chapter Award for Distinguished Service provides an opportunity for chapters to recognize on a national stage, the individuals who have made a significant contribution to their chapter. Elena is known as a courageous and insightful leader who has led the Trillium Health Partners’ Cardiac Health Program in moving forward with transformations that have impacted patient care.

The award was presented at the CCHL 2015 National Awards Gala held in Charlottetown, PEI on Sunday June 14, 2015.
