Long before he became a city Councillor, Jim Tovey was a visionary, an environmentalist, community activist and inspirational leader. He was a dynamite package of passion, plans and persistence. So many of the initiatives now in progress, were the "out of the box" thinking of Jim. Inspiring our community to dream and visualize, driving ideas to City Hall and making them happen.

Michael "Pinball" Clemons - Former Player and Coach Toronto Argonauts

Few people exemplify the qualities of personal excellence, teamwork, community leadership, and overcoming the odds better than CFL legend Michael "Pinball" Clemons. In 1990, he received the CFL's Most Outstanding Player Award after setting a single season record for all-purpose yards at (3,300). Clemons compiled a brilliant CFL career with the Toronto Argonauts; a three-time Grey Cup Champion with 12 all-time team records to his credit, he also set pro-football records for most career combined yards of 25,396. Michael is a man of true character, an incredibly generous spirit and a quiet dignity that shines on and off the field.

Trillium Health Care Partners (THP)

At Trillium Health Care Partners, more than 12,000 employees demonstrated courage, compassion and excellence since the very onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, going above and beyond to care for our community and each other in the toughest, most unexpected of times. At Credit Valley Hospital, the Mississauga Hospital and the Queen'sway Health Centre, they remained flexible and strong when guidelines changed, rallied together to rise to the call of long-term care homes – providing support to all 19 in Mississauga – developed an in-house COVID-19 lab test, set up three Assessment Centres, one Pandemic Response Unit, two vaccination clinics and provided more than 304,000 virtual consults to patients who needed care. Every individual at THP played a crucial role in taking on this pandemic, from frontline workers, to support staff, to their leadership. Legends Row proudly salutes the entire THP team who rose to the occasion in our time of greatest need.
